ANNOUNCEMENTS

Congratulations to Derek for his SOTA achievement as Mountain Goat. Along with his companion Craig. A lot of work on nice days, a lot harder on days that were not so nice, they were up there in all kinds of weather.

The next CW slow speed NET will be on Thursday October 17, 2024. At 10:00 AM on 7.045 MHZ.

These days are still warm so take advantage and operate in the field.

Zombie Shuffle will be on October 25, 2024.

A handout was circulated about the rules for those who want to participate. The event starts at 3:00 PM local until 12:00 Midnight. CW QRP only a lot of fun, I hope to hear you out there on the air.

Next month Ed will have the latest membership list for all those attending.

Jim W6US announced

Good activity on the NVQSO, so far we have about 160 logs turned in with 15 of those being from Nevada station. A few big scores showing up on 3830scores.com. Conditions were up and down, at one time on Saturday the A was 116 with a K of 9...Worked some good DX on 10m into Europe, and even snagged T32AZ in Eastern Kiribati.. If you haven't sent in your log, please do, and also post your summaries on 3830scores.com. Thanks for all who got on the air!

Voz KB7VT

Announced that he has :

- 2 power tube glass chimneys (Itel McColla [SP])
- Kerosene heater (can be used against a wall) Bought new/have manual.
- A 5 gal. Water jug, fits water coolers.
- 3 - 2 Meter mobile radios. Was formerly property of SNARS, years ago.
- A liquid dispenser that fits in normal refrigerator. (I used for ice water)
- 2 pair good boots (too small for me)
- Drain snake, used but still good!
- Overhead lamp fixture (shade), white. Think it was used outside. Excellent condition.
- 2 small grills off of small BBQs. (Chrome steel)

-A professional Sony video camera shipping case (empty).

SHOW AND TELL

Bob KA6NSN

Along with a replacement battery, I got a plastic bag containing a little screwdriver and what looked like a guitar pick.

I assumed that the inclusion of a guitar pic was some kind of packaging error.

I found out later that what looked like an instrument accessory, was actually a pry tool that was supposed to be used to pop the plastic case open.

Who knew?

The next Reno QRP Group will be held on Tuesday
